CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION

The Fall Conference offers a unique learning experience through large group experiences, dialogue, didactic information sharing, and small process group experiences. Our goal is to provide a relaxed learning environment in which you can integrate a deeper understanding of the conference theme into your group leadership style and clinical practice.

Wild Civility: Working with Erotic Feelings in Group Therapy and Supervision

Have you ever lost a patient by being too civil? Have your groups ever become too wild? Have you? We will examine erotic feelings as they arise and are defended against in our roles as patient, therapist, supervisor, supervisee, and members of the conference.

Conference participants will be able to:

- Identify desire and dread in their transference and counter-transference reactions.
- Describe the positive and negative impact of lust, desire, intimacy, love and power in their work.
- Recognize the workings of Eros and our defenses against it during the conference in both large and small group settings.
- Use the tension, wild-civility, in our multiple roles.

Continuing Education Credits

Social Workers & LCPCs: Old Dominion University will award 12 CEU credits.
